BEPS Inclusive Framework – Global Minimum Taxation

On 1 July 2021, in a historic agreement, 130 countries approved a statement providing a framework for reform of international tax rules. These countries (including Bahrain) are members of the OECD/G20 Inclusive Framework on BEPS, comprising 139 countries. The statement sets forth the key terms for an agreement of a two-pillar approach to reforms and calls for a comprehensive agreement by the October 2021 G20 Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors meeting, with changes coming into effect in 2023.

What does this mean for Bahrain businesses and will this act as a catalyst for the introduction of corporate tax in Bahrain?

Whilst BEPS may be a complex subject - the KPMG Bahrain tax team has prepared a handy FAQs guide to help readers decode the theory behind the Global Minimum Tax and how this may impact the tax landscape in Bahrain.
