

Embracing a new season

A new season for KPMG

Earlier this year, we dropped the big news about our managing partner transition as the baton passed from Ong Pang Thye to Lee Sze Yeng on 1 October 2023. A huge shoutout to Pang Thye for his invaluable contributions to the firm!

Congratulations, once again, to the woman of the hour — Lee Sze Yeng — our newly minted Managing Partner, who is on a mission to build a Healthy & Happy Organisation! Sze Yeng was most recently our Head of Audit, and also led our community outreach program, KPMG Cares, fostering inclusive employment, sustainable communities, and social equity. Our leadership team, Operations Committee (OpsCom), welcomed three new appointments in October. Congratulations to Alex Koh (Head of Audit), Gary Chia (Head of Consulting) and Stephen Bates (Head of Deal Advisory) for their new appointments! Ajay Sangneria (Head of Tax), Malcolm Ramsay (Partner for Risk Management) and Tay Hong Beng (Chief Financial Officer and Head of Central Services) continue to keep the leadership camaraderie strong.

Dear Alumni!

Time flies and we are in the last two months of 2023! I am looking forward to the new year with much excitement.

In this edition of the Alumni newsletter, I wanted to share a few key leadership updates which will help to propel our firm to the next level.

For starters, I am very proud and excited to introduce Lee Sze Yeng as our new Managing Partner. A personal friend and a very well-liked individual, Sze Yeng is a familiar face to many of you who have passed the doors of KPMG in the last three decades. Please join me in welcoming Sze Yeng as our new MP, as well as our OpsCom leaders and new Partners!

Hope you have an enjoyable read, and do stay engaged as we forge ahead in the pursuit of excellence.

As always, do connect with me on LinkedIn and join CIRCLE – KPMG Alumni LinkedIn page for the latest updates.
